"We have known ETP as a professional, committed, trustworthy and flexible partner for installation support on our international Projects. ETP priority is to deliver quality personnel and a long-term relationship. A long relationship is all about trust, understanding and good communication, but also be honest when you are not able to deliver the intended quality.

That is how we have known ETP."

Guido Lems

Manager Service at Alewijnse

"I was thoroughly satisfied with the support provided by ETP over the course of the project. Their staff ensured that highly skilled workforce was delivered on site. They took care of all the logistics and all related issues. I was able to contact ETP at any stage during the project in order to share my questions or concerns which were always responded to and resolved in good time. I was impressed how efficiently ETP managed to provide solution for my project."
